Youthful Trio Charged In Waveland Break-Ins

Three youths in their late teens were jailed Tuesday night on charges resulting from break-ins at nine Waveland residences since mid-December, Sheriff Gerald V. Price announced Wednesday. They had been under surveillance for the last two weeks by Chief Deputy Gerald Price, Jr., Waveland Marshal Fred Bourgeois and Sidney Bourgeois and were spotted by the latter Monday night on Farrar Lane prior to a break-in at the James O'Brien home on Sandy Street.

The sheriff said Crawford Billy Jackson of Waveland had admitted five break-ins by himself, implicated Troy James of Gulfport in four others and Vesta Ladner, Jr., of Bay St. Louis in one. Hearing is slated before Beat 5 Justice of the Peace Nellus Rhodes this weekend.

When the O'Brien burglary was discovered, Price said his office was advised the trio was in Mobile Tuesday. He and Sidney Bourgeois waited at the east end of the toll bridge with Deputy Price, Roland LaFontaine, Jr., Walter Yarbrough and Marshall Bourgeois stationed at this end to apprehend the boys. They were stopped at 11:15 p.m. City Policemen Julius Webb and Paul Egloff assisted, accompanying the group to the Courthouse for interrogation later.

The sheriff listed as taken from the O'Brien house 50 feet of tape, two guns, a man's diamond ring, and wristwatch, eight transistor radios, portable hi-fi, $300.10 cash, electric razor, new leather wallet, woman's pocketbook and six or eight bottles of liquor. Entry was gained by forcing open the back door. All but the cash and ring have been recovered, the 32 pistol and hi-fi having been sold in Mobile, along with a .22 pistol and .22 rifle taken from the John Smith residence at Farrar and Beach Blvd. He said an electric drill and radio taken from the Stephen Hartel home on the Beach had been sold in Gulfport. Two dueling swords and $10 cash also was missing from the Hartel house which Jackson admitted entering twice, Price said. Gulfport Detectives H. J. Ladner and Doug Thompson cooperated in the investigation in that city.

Bourgeois listed the William Adams and Ned Cadella homes on the Beach as others entered by Jackson. Other four residences involved were of Charles Gallassaro and Michael W. Boos on Piney Ridge Drive; Arthur Babin on Sandy Street and Travis Culbreth on Farrar Lane. In some cases only soft and hard drinks were taken, plus damage in the break-in, he reported.

Ladner has been bound over to the March grand jury by Beat 4 JP Frank Selph on charges of breaking and entering property of Jack Lott at Kiln, the sheriff noted.

16th Section Lease Topic

Checking validity of leases on several tracts of 16th Section land and allegations made by representatives of the Mississippi Forestry Commission of improper timber cutting occupied the board of supervisors at a brief session Monday.

A representative of Smith and Saunders, consulting engineers from Jackson, requested consideration when the board moves toward improvement of the county airport and was asked to appear next Monday.

In other action the board accepted state recommendations disallowing homestead exemptions for Robert Heron and Phil S. Finn on recommendations of Tax Assessor George Heitzman added to the land rolls from M. Godchaux and Caruso and Williams who had been erroneously omitted, and deleted Wayne H. Kuhn and Jason Ladner on erroneous assessments.

Enameling Plant Aims to First Shipment March 19

Industrial Electric's new enameling division in Bay St. Louis is moving gradually toward full production, aiming toward the week of March 19 for making its first shipment of goods, Robert Glibault, plant manager, said yesterday.

This second shift of the steel metal department is starting to work now and the enameling operations are being moved over so it should be in full production within two weeks. As the men complete setting up equipment moved over from New Orleans they are going to work on the machines, Glibault said.

The office force is to move into its new quarters on the east side of the huge plant on Central Avenue next week.

Meanwhile, some landscaping has been done in front of the building with planting of shrubbery and paving of the parking area in front and on the side to be completed shortly.

According to Mayor John A. Scalfie the paving could be completed in a week with good weather, but bad weather might delay this for some time.

Mrs. Clark, Renshaw Lead 1st Denizens

Norman Renshaw reigned as King Neptune with Mrs. John W. Clark as his queen as Bay-Waveland Yacht Club staged its first mock Carnival ball, Denizens of the Deep, last Friday evening.

Neptune, with a long white beard and clad in a flowing white satin robe embellished in sequins, arrived by boat at the club dock to launch the evening's festivities at 9 p.m. He was greeted with a shower of fireworks and a canon salute by members of the krewe as the band played Dixieland jazz before the entourage moved to the ballroom where the queen and maids were presented. Fred Wagner presented the king with his sceptre and the lavish crown of red velvet trimmed with rhinestones.

The five maids drew for the queen's favor which was won by Mrs. Clark. The maids were Mrs. Don Prentice, Mrs. Richard Reeves, Mrs. James McDonald and Mrs. Horace Kergosien.

The dukes were Charles Kalmbach, John Stern, Bennet Mahler and Ray Stieff. Kenneth W. Pepperdene, commodore of the club, presented King Neptune with a silver goblet as a

Forest Fire Sweeps North County Tract

The worst forest fire in Hancock County this year devastated some 200 acres west of North Central School Friday afternoon before it was brought under control by fire fighting crews of the county and St. Regis Paper Co., Area Forester Glenn Purvis reported.

For a while it appeared the high winds might whip the blaze on to Hattiesburg, Purvis said, noting it was moving faster than fire lanes could be plowed with a tractor. The property damaged belonged to St. Regis, International Paper Co., Leo W. Seal and the Curry estate of Hattiesburg.

About 80 acres were planted with three and four year old seedlings. Purvis urged caution in burning, saying, "If people would only get the idea not to burn others' property."

He reported sizeable fires also on lieu lands in the north-east section of the county and a small one on a 16th Section north of Kiln last Wednesday and Thursday. To date this year forestry commission fire control crews have suppressed 74 forest fires which burned over 1,100 acres of timberland and caused damage estimated at $15,000.

Observing that the next 30 days will be a most critical fire period, he called for active interest and cooperation of all the people.

Impact on Schools Eyed

The anticipated impact of the NASA test site in Hancock County on public educational systems of the area and how they may proceed to secure federal aid in meeting the situation was considered at a meeting Tuesday morning at the Corps of Engineers real estate office here.

The conference was arranged by O. B. Moore, real estate project manager for the Engineers.

Coming here for the occasion was L. D. Langley, field representative from the Atlanta regional office of the Department of Health, Education and Welfare; and Marian Kent, assistant to the deputy director for administration at the George C. Marshall Space Flight Center at Huntsville, Ala.

Moore outlined the land acquisition for the test site which calls for securing the fee area about June 1 which will displace between 150 to 200 owners, while about 2,700 persons in the easement area must move by mid 1964 when NASA is to become operational here. He said he expects the real estate office to reach a peak force of 50 and a resident engineer is to establish an office in the county later this year for the project.

Langley told of the two public laws available to the schools for financial aid, either under construction or operating funds, explaining to the superintendents the channels through which they should proceed if they expect to be affected by pupil growth with the NASA project.

Superintendents present included K. G. McCarty of Hancock County, J. D. McCulloch of Bay St. Louis, Charles W. Shumake of Pass Christian; S. F. Smith of Piceayune, Thomas L. Raven of Ocean Beach, N. E. Toombs of Ocean Springs, R. D. Brown of Biloxi and Eace Smith of Harrison County. Also attending were J. H. Landrum, assistant superintendent in Gulfport; Mrs. Richard Ellis, assistant to the Bay superintendent; Dalton B. Shourds, architect for the North Central School addition; Principal L. McGinty of Slidell, La.; Ted J. Schlessner and Sam T. Wilkes, administrative assistants from Moss Point, and Luther W. Tanner, former Moss Point superintendent.

WITH NAVY - Charles J. Lachner, E.M.F.A., son of Mr. and Mrs. Desha Cuenas of Catapah, was graduated Feb. 6 from the 14-week Electrician's Mate School at the Naval Training Center, Great Lakes, Ill., and is now stationed aboard the USS Middlesex at New York, N. Y.

Teen times

The fact that six-week tests are just around the corner both for local boys and girls seemingly not at all as most enjoyed the round of pre-Mardi Gras festivities over the weekend.

The Krewe of Carrollton's grade Sunday drew quite a crowd from our area, partially due to the fact that the Stanislaus Band complete with St. Joseph's major was marched in this spectacular group. They also marched with the Krewe of Fire on Monday night. Caroline Damians, Nancy Hamman, Ann, Tommy and Giles were also attended the Sunday parade.

King Cake parties continue almost every youth organization in town either has had or planning a dance before settling down to the 40 celebrationless days which follow Carnival.

A twist contest was featured at the CYC dance held at the nights of Columbus Hall Friday night. Finalists included Kay Birch and Corky Schindler, Judy Millic and Leroy Luke and Jo Ann McCullough and Bill Jennings. Nickie Kingston and his were the victors.

The Donkey Basketball game which was an added attraction of the tournament at Gulfview School drew large crowds on Friday night.

The weekend wasn't all fun, however, as many local students on Bay High, St. Joseph and Stanislaus took their ATCP exams on Saturday—some went to RC, others to Loyola and LSU. Beta Club members spent Sunday collecting for the local heart fund drive.

Football practice is well underway—Terry and Tom Mayfield, Eddie Bourgeois, Tim Fagan and Johnny Penton are Waveland boys working out at Bay High. Buck's Gym on Blaine Avenue formerly Thrifty Used Furniture has a total of 35 boxing enthusiasts sparring away under the tutelage of Buck Price. Buck is in the U. S. Marine Corps and both boxed and coached teams PRC and Mississippi Southern where he obtained his Phys Ed degree.

Welcome to teenagers to Pam who became eligible by reaching 13 Feb. 23... a very happy belated birthday to Pam, and to Yvonne Schwartz who was on the 17th... We'll have to postpone her sister Marietta to the adult column come Sunday... We'll be 20 on that date... Marietta, incidentally, looked like a doll in her pink and white ball gown which she wore as a member of the court in the A Carnival Ball Saturday night. Missy Rowley entertained a group of friends at a weekend luncheon at Magnolia, the summer home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Rowley. Guests included Ann Balliet of Waveland, Jenny Cairo, Karen Goren, Debbie Hawkins, Tealy Miller, Cindy Wegmann and Anne Semaker, all of New Orleans. The Gold Jays of St. Joseph accompanied by coach Elaine Olson leave for Jackson Friday to attend the state basketball tournament.

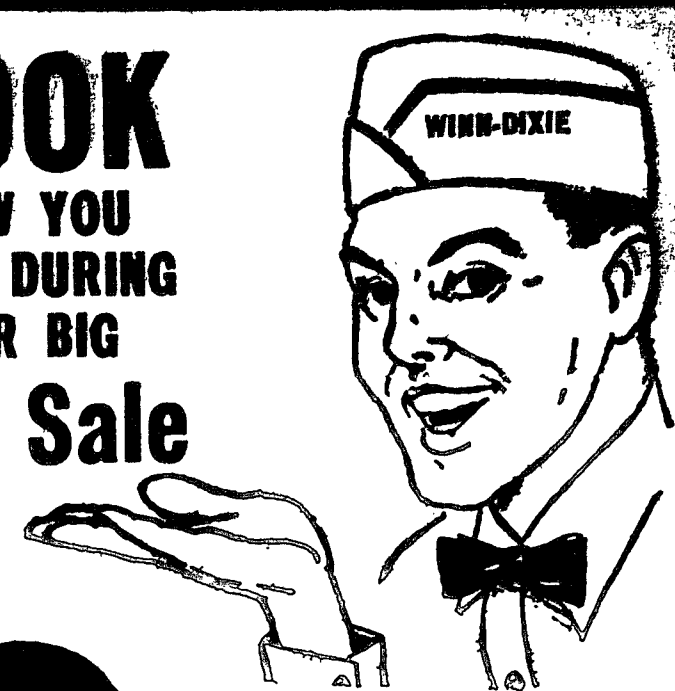

Linda Munch was feted at the largest party yet given at the Waveland Roller Rink in honor of her 15th birthday—Feb. 28 as the day, but the party was Sunday night. Sixty-five guests enjoyed the lovely white cake trimmed in pink rosebuds, candy, cookies and soft drinks.

The ballroom was draped with blue and green cellophane representing the water. Huge men of war and starfish along with similar animals of the sea were hung from the ceiling and spotted with blue and green lights. Piles of clam shells holding arrangements of lavender and yellow flowers were placed on either side of the mantle which was centered with a lighted aquarium and glittering moss. Lavender net draped with ship's wheel above the mantle trimmed with brilliant starfish in hues of yellow, green and orange. A shell was the background for the throne with lavender sea horses in either side and a net trimmed with various fish and crabs covered the ceiling in the lounge. Decorations were handled by Mrs. T. A. Quigley and Mrs. J. H. Plunkett.

Serving on the floor committee were Commodore Pepperdene, Horace Kergosden, J. H. Plunkett, N. L. Carter, Roger Boh and J. E. Erwin.

Mrs. Clark was in a short white chiffon formal. Her mantle of pale blue lined with royal blue was bordered with a sequin design, a large sequined octopus being the focal point. The collar was of white lace with an overall design of sequins and rhinestones. She carried a bouquet of long stemmed red roses.

The maids in short white formals with cascade bouquets of smaller red roses.

A breakfast at 12:30 a.m. concluded the festivities.

At Waveland

Shades of purple and gold—a look in the mirror and a glance at the surroundings of most of our acquaintances confirm the fact that these have been highly appropriate for the Carnival season for many reasons (that one). After the gayest weekend since New Year's there are few who don't possess a set of lavender circles beneath their eyes and of course the accompanying complexion is somewhat yellowish in appearance—the remains of last year's masquerade, or some the jaundice of sheer exhaustion... but it was one helluva weekend.

Denizens and SJA Events

Denizens of the deep, the Yacht Club's first mock Carnival ball was so successful there's no doubt that it was the first of many to come. Margaret Hadden, president of the auxiliary, did a marvellous job of organizing the affair. Her mother, Mrs. Roger Bob and "Aunt Mary"—Mrs. Charles A. Branch, Jr., cooperated on the gorgeous mantle which was draped about the shoulders of queen, Eddie Clark—Mrs. Bob was responsible for King Neptune Norman Rossman's glittering costume. The club was beautifully decorated in sea shades of blues and greens—Barbara Quigley and Helen Plunkett supervised the adornment of the club.

SJA's 25th annual ball was pronounced the loveliest yet by the many who viewed the affair. Dr. and Mrs. Louis Neman (she's the former Marsha Hadden) were a handsome royal couple. The costumes were lovely and varied—Lynne Hall and Anthony Leduc almost brought down the house as a couple of real cool cats—Vivian Korson and Milton Fortier also drew applause for their G-String outfits. Twisting was very much the thing at the party which followed the ball—members of the younger set began dancing the newest craze, but just about everyone tried it before the evening or rather morning was over—some of those enjoying themselves were Nana and Harold Zimmerman, Beulah and Sidney Bourgeois, Claire and Fred Bourgeois, Ruth and Matt Ballatin, Kate and "Soy Ratz", Peggy and Floyd Hopting, Elaine Davis, Ray Boudages, Grace and Sam Boudages, Doris and Baldwin Wilday, Gladys and Harry Banner, etc., etc.—pretty Cleo Smith and husband, Joe were just perfect as Madame Butterfly and her Naval Lieutenant—Ruby and Leroy Bourgeois made a dashing Mexican couple—Gladys and Lamar Bassett who dashed in from Pascagoula to participate in the ball, wore sparkling satin outfits.

Birthday Wishes

Lots of birthdays past, present and future—the boss, P. G., Jr., received a beautiful English setter puppy which he promptly christened "Miss" on the big day, Feb. 31. "Miss Eve" Leduc of Clermont Harbor was gifted with a lovely cake by sons Buck and Lester on Monday. Mrs. Leduc's daughter, Elva Susan observed her birthday on the 26th. Little Kim Thomas—Hall—a very lovely little girl, whom we mistakenly called a boy several weeks ago, will reach the ripe old age of one year come Saturday. We're a bit late on this one—Mrs. Fred Meyers, who spent the weekend with her daughter Phyl and son-in-law Jimmy Legasse had a birthday Jan. 12. On Sunday Mrs. Meyers and long time friend of the family, Maile Marlonneau of Pass Christian enjoyed an outing on Coleman Avenue. Pat and Carlos Killeen and a group of friends celebrated their 13th wedding anniversary in high style at Haverly's on Saturday night—Mabel and Tony Monti and your reporter and better half have anniversaries March 2. . . don't know if this hint will work... but it's worth a try.

Visiting Gladys and Harold Hicks over the weekend were former schoolmates of Gladys', Myrt and Cliff Ray—originally from Monroe, La., who now reside in Shreveport. Cliff, who is a former commander of the Shreveport Yacht Club, and Myrt were feted by the Hicks on Friday night. Guests included Col. and Mrs. Alfred McCaleb and the R. G. Riggs—the Riggs in turn hosted a luncheon for the group Saturday night. Brewster and Jane Mollier, Bogie and the children spent Sunday in New Orleans where they viewed the Carnival Parade—Louis Gruntz was a member of the Krewe and showered them with throws. . . Mary Cecilia Lukovich, granddaughter of Mrs. Clarence Hava, was a member of the court.

Bouncing Babies

The spring crop of babies has begun to appear—Elate and John Klein are jubilant over the arrival of little Cindy Ann who was born in Hancock General Feb. 22—she weighed an even six pounds, and according to grandmother, Claude Klein she's a raving beauty. Loraine and Charlie Poolson's fourth child and second daughter was born a little after 11 p.m. Tuesday, Kelly, as she is to be christened, weighed seven pounds and three ounces. . . Her Waveland grandparents, Clarence and Oswald Villere, hopped out of bed and dashed to the hospital to admire their grandchild.

Lots and Carlos Lozano, the girls and "Little Joe" spent the weekend in their Waveland home.

Ruth and Al Landry entertained a group of friends at a crawfish boil in their Forest Avenue home Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Bix and daughter of Gulfport were Sunday guests of Sara and John March and daughter, Linda.

From the Pass

Honey-mooners Odele and David Perenchik will not be likely to forget their wedding trip. As guests of David's uncle, Ellis Crawford, chief engineer of last Tuesday's man in space shot, the young couple viewed Astronaut Glenn's propulsion has orbited—a fact which they immediately wired to both sets of parents, the Fritz Perenchiks of DeLisle and the William Hicks of Pass Christian.

Success story—Fren and Roland Wallace, former residents of Atlanta, Ga., moved to the Pass about eight months ago as both are avid fishermen—Fren is also an avid bridge player and talented baker of cakes—when friends tasted her crumbly crust pound cakes they asked that she bake them for bridge luncheons and similar gatherings. . . others tasted this delicacy and more cakes were requested instead of retiring and fishing leisurely, the Wallaces are in business—these pound cakes are now packaged ready-to-bake in pans and are available at one of our local stores.

Bay Side of the News

A very happy, if belated birthday greeting to Allyne Ramago (Miss Andrews, Jr.) who celebrated Feb. 20. She says she's feeling fine, having fully recovered from recent surgery.

The McFalls, Bea and Mr. Jimmy, took off for Mobile again Friday. . . they visited son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Frost.

Edna and Eddie Hladne attended the parade and ball of the Krewe of Caribbees in the Crescent City. Weekend guests of Mami and Max Gremillion were former Vanderbilt University basketball star Fred Hedin and Mrs. Hedin who are now living in Houston, Texas.

An attractive addition to our locale is James Bouchard—James hails from Fall River, Mass., and is secretary to Mr. Moore—the NASA man, that is.

The Ray Gardens has a full house last week—daughter, Mrs. Albert Bob, Mr. Bob and sons, Michael and Gordon, and son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John Gordon, and son, John, all of New Orleans were their guests.

Fishing News

There are fishing highlights—according to Clem Fournier, the owner of the fishing supply and the trout should begin biting soon. We know: For George Chene he happy with the time comes—now him actually fishing this weekend next Thursday.

MR. AND MRS. CHARLES DAWSON CURET

LAKE SHORE LOG

BY MRS. MALCOLM GREEN

Heartiest congratulations to Bert and Diana Courge who have a baby girl, their first child born two weeks ago in Mercy Hospital, New Orleans. Mrs. Courge is the former Diana Lader.

Dan Seal, brother of Oren Seal, is in Memorial Hospital, Gulfport, recovering nicely from major surgery.

Get well wishes to Mrs. Myra Ann Sager, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oren Seale. Mrs. Sager is in Hancock General for a complete check up and rest. Myra Ann and her three children have been staying with her parents in Lakeshore while her husband Sgt. Donald Sager is attending the I. B. M. advanced training school in Kingston, N. Y.

Our sympathy to Milton and Leola Staufflet. The infant baby girl of their daughter and son-in-law appeared to possess almost human intelligence. While discussing animals, we'll remind one and all that it's vaccination time for pets. The Stewart Bros., Piquette veterinarians, will begin vaccinating their needles on March 12, and will continue through March 31. . . a complete schedule will appear in the Echo—immunizing stations will be set up at various points throughout the county.

Lucille Fayard is still a patient in Gulfport Memorial. . . the pin was removed from her knee on Friday—so we're all hoping she'll be allowed to return home soon.

On the Avenue

Agnes and Billy McCall showing our fair city to their weekend guests; Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Williams attending to Saturday tasks; Del Wilcox, quite bright-eyed etc., despite an evening at the fabulous Playboy Club; Ann Develle looking years too young to be little Pam's grandmother; Irene Vogt Graft, visiting from neighboring Clermont Harbor; Mrs. Mary Moran, who never seems to change in the least, and Helen Rohr who reports a wonderful time at the Casino Ball which she attended as one of Bea George's guests.

Sterling Balaski and John Anderson returned from Chicago Friday night—they enjoyed the dental convention, but Chicago in February isn't really too pleasant weatherwise. . . (to be perfectly honest, Chicago in June isn't anything to get excited about in the way of climate)

Curet-Gremillion Vows Spoken in Alexandria

Miss Carol Ann Gremillion, daughter of Mrs. Leon Blane Gremillion of Alexandria, La., and the late Mr. Gremillion, became the bride of Charles Dawson Curet, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Curet of Kila, in a double ring ceremony Feb. 10 at St. Frances Cabrini Catholic Church in Alexandria. Rev. Mgr. Gerald Ducote officiated before an altar adorned with arrangements of white gladioli and stock. Miss Gremillion was given in marriage by Aubrey P. Blank, her uncle and god father. Her gown was an original model of pearl de sole made on princess lines. The front panel was embellished with lace appliques and tiny bridal jewels which were repeated in the sash and neckline. The fitted sleeves were elbow length and the full skirt fell from pleated hip panels, extending into a chapel train. Tiny buttons fastened the dress at the back. Her hair was held in place by a coronet trimmed with seed pearls and she carried a colonial bouquet of white carnations centered with a white orchid.

Mrs. Harold J. Demetz of New Orleans was matron of honor for her sister. The other attendants were Misses Linda Gremillion and Sandra Gremillion of Alexandria. Mrs. Donald Fritter of New Orleans, all sisters of the bride, and Miss Mills Harter of Alexandria.

Their street length frocks were of emerald green tulle with sleeves and scoop necklines. The tulip shaped skirts were trimmed with matching roses spaced slightly above the hemline and they carried colonial bouquets of yellow mums. Harold Demetz of New Orleans and Pess Christian were best man and bridesmaid. Donald Fritter, Theodore Cam, Martin F. Pister, all of New Orleans, George Curet, Jr., of Kila and Dr. William E. Smith of Baton Rouge, Albert Sander of Baton Rouge.

DAY ST. LOUIS, MO.

Maroons and Mitchell

Mississippi State, led by Kiln's Leland Mitchell, continues to lead along towards a second consecutive Southeastern Conference championship, their latest victories coming over LSU and Ole Miss. The Maroons need only to win their lone remaining game against Ole Miss Saturday night at Starkville to win the SEC crown.

Well is leading the team in scoring, averaging 17.4 points per game through Saturday night's 58-48 conquest of LSU. State's forward scored only 14 points against the Tigers but this is good enough to place second in the game behind junior Joe Dan Gold who tallied 22.

Only Was Only Conquerer

State has a 22-1 record going into the Ole Miss game, and the victory inflicted upon the Maroons' record came at the hands of the Rebels. Commodore, a team which we think to be the most dominant team in the conference. We've listened to several Vandy radio and have been impressed. In two games against the Rebels, they've played the Wildcats to a standstill for a major portion of each contest. When they downed State, they earned the SEC crown.

State did not give it away. Maroons will not represent the SEC in the NCAA tournament. The winner of the Auburn-Kentucky game Monday night will claim the title to that honor - and we think it is a shame that the team in the South will not be able to prove to the rest of the country that the brand of ball played in the Deep South isn't as many people believe it to be.

Year the Maroons should rank as one of the best teams, if not the best, in the nation. For an idea of how strong the Maroons are, look at the Georgia game of last week stands out. Six scored in double figures for McCarthy's quintet and not those players is a senior. Back next year will be Mitchell, Lashoph Doug Hutton, W. D. (Red) Stroud, hero of several games including a last-second win in the Sugar Bowl Tourney in Maryland, and several other good solid players. We've also heard that there is a pretty good freshman prospect at Starkville named Doug Necaise.

the State Cage Front

North Central was shocked two weeks ago in first-round play of the District Eight A-AA High School Basketball Tournament by Bassfield, a team with only an 11-7 record before the game and thus, the Hawks were eliminated from the route towards the state championship. Several other usual cage powerhouses were knocked from the running in District play, including Camp and Starkville, champs in the B-BB and A-AA boys' tournaments last season.

coast area, and in particular the Gulf Coast Conference, we one team to walk away with high honors in the South Mississippi tournaments last week. St. Martin boys finished first in BB division, and they and East Union of the northern part of the state will be top-seeded in the State B-BB tourney this week. St. Martin's girls' squad captured fourth place in the B-BB girls' tourney, and a third Gulf Coast Conference member, Harrison Central, finished fourth in A-AA boys' play.

They were disappointed in Harrison Central's performance. We heard via radio Friday night, Central was completely off in their shooting, and two of their stars, Paul Lader and big Wilson, were in foul trouble before the end of the first half. Central has a strong team through when they're right. Over Bassfield - 56-18 at halftime and it is unlikely that they will be off two weeks in succession. We look for the Rebs to give us a good game.

Martin's quintet came through in great form in the South B-BB. The Yellow Jackets won in the finals by 30 points over Bogus and their only rough game was in Friday night's semifinals. Pelahatchie, when they won a 63-62 decision. The game really was as close as it sounds. St. Martin leading by 13 points at one point before center Louis Holm, the Gulf Coast Conference's outstanding player, fouled out. Pelahatchie made a goal with one second left to reduce a three point deficit to one. Darney Deraux of Martin was named the tourney's outstanding player.

the Sports Entertainment have been watching ABC's Wide World of Sports of late on afternoon and for sports fans who can pick up either Channel 13 on their sets, and who are interested in learning about the sports, we highly recommend the show.

Each week, for example, the 90 minute show covered two sports - and bobsled championships in Germany and the international championships in Hawaii. We'd never seen either of the sports but found them to be just as entertaining as baseball, football, and skating are two items which will be shown in the coming week. Each week, along with the regular announcers, a personality sport covered gives viewers inside tips on what to look for.

(Channels 4 and 5) has a show of almost the same type which starts at about noon on Sundays and it is probably just as entertaining as the other show, but we made mention of the ABC because we've watched it several times and have only seen the ABC on our sets.

entertaining sports show is Shell's Wonderful World of Sports. Each week, a name golf pro (Gene Littler, Benji, Byron Nelson, Jerry Barber, etc.) from the United States or a famous foreign golfer (Gary Player, Peter Thompson, etc.) in a medal play game. The show is different from the other golf weeklies which have been shown on the nation's television the past few years, and is probably most entertaining to true golf fans.

are not trying to build up any special television shows in this area - we just think that some of our readers might not be aware of the weekend sports activity they can see.

North Central Cops Elementary Tourney

In what may be classed as a sort of "predictions of things to come," North Central's boys and girls basketball teams ran away with the Hancock County elementary cage tourney staged last weekend at Gulfview School.

The girls whipped a solid Logtown sextet 28-21 in the final Saturday night while the Little Hawk boys overpowered North Bay 44-38 after overwhelming host Gulfview 67-16 in the semifinals. The girls had advanced with a 45-14 trouncing of St. Joseph Academy Saturday afternoon.

The sportsmanship trophy, donated annually by Coast Electric Power Assn., went to Gulfview. Valerie Malley, eighth grader at North Central, led the Little Hawkettes in scoring with a whooping 30 points against SJA and 20 in the Logtown contest. Playing for the Hawkettes that night at forward were Valerie, Beverly Peterson and Sandra

Leland Mitchell Of Kiln Makes All-SEC Squad

Kiln's Leland Mitchell Monday was named to the All-South-eastern Conference AP Basketball Team. Mitchell, a junior at Mississippi State, joins two other juniors, one sophomore, and only one senior, on the first team. Mitchell, a leading point-getter and rebounder for State all season long, was named to the team along with teammate W. D. Stroud, Kentucky's great sophomore center Charlie (Cotton) Nash, Larry Purdum of Kentucky, and high-scoring Jim Kerwin of Tulane.

The only other Mississippi player on the three-all-star team selected was sophomore Donnie Keesinger of Ole Miss, one of the top four SEC scorers average-wise.

Other first round games saw SJA girls defeat Gulfview in the tournament, a 31-10 rouser Thursday afternoon and Gulfview boys eliminated St. Stanislaus also Thursday night.
